

Section 3

Founder of the enterprise

(1) The founder of the enterprise is the State. The ministry in whose sphere the enterprise's subject of business falls performs the function of founder in its name, unless the Act stipulates otherwise.

(2) The enterprise is not liable for the debts of the State and the State is not liable for the debts of the enterprise, unless this Act stipulates otherwise.

(3) The function of the founder of an enterprise fulfilling tasks for national defence to a certain extent may be performed by a ministry other than the Ministry of Defence only after prior approval from the Ministry of Defence.

(4) The enterprise can only be founded on the basis of prior approval by the government.
